

IFSSH Committee for Educational Sponsorship (CES)

Aim and Composition

Aim

The aim of the IFSSH Committee for Educational Sponsorship (CES) is to financially support the development and harmonisation of hand management worldwide through the IFSSH Member Societies.

Composition

1. The composition of the CES from the conclusion of the 2022 Delegates' Council meeting through the conclusion of the 2027 Delegates' Council meeting shall be the President-Elect (Chair), the Communications Director and a Member-at-large.
2. The Member-at-large shall be selected at random from those appointed to three year terms.
3. The composition of the CES subsequent to the conclusion of the 2027 Delegates' Council meeting shall be the Immediate Past President (chair), the Communications Director and a Member-at-large (selected at random).

The Executive Committee shall have the right to adjust the composition of the CES as needed to assure its good function.

The term of the CES members shall correspond to the member's ExCo term.